Once again Westchester Retriever Club will be hosting weekly field training sessions on Tuesdays and on designated weekend dates at Stewart State Forest. The sessions will begin on April 13, 2010 and continue through the end of September 2010, subject, of course, to the permit to be issued by the New York State DEC.

We will use a similar system of group rotation of the various fields and ponds as we used last year. Check our website www.westchester-retriever.com , or training director for more information.
